

Year End Sale!

Beginning Monday, December 27,
and Continuing the Rest of the Year

THIS SALE involves thousands of dollars' worth of seasonable winter merchandise and offers an excellent opportunity for thrifty inclined shoppers to get a good, big money's worth of values.

Dress Goods

In the face of the shortage and high prices of Wool Dress Goods, we are putting into this sale hundreds of yards of beautiful Wool Materials, including many of the season's latest novelties.

54-inch Scotch Mixtures, $1.50 values, now .....98c
50-inch Zibeline Finish Novelty Mixtures, $1.00 values, now...75c
50-inch Wool Novelty, plain colors, $1.00 value, now.....75c
One lot Wool Dress Goods, just one-half price.

Silks

One lot narrow width Fancy and Plain Messalines, to close, per yard .....39c

One lot Cheney 24-inch Shower-proof Dress Silks, 87c value, now, per yard .....59c

Ladies' Shoe Department

One lot Ladies' odd Indian Moccasins, $1.50 and $1.75 values, now, per pair .....98c

One lot of Men's Slippers, $1.50 and $2.00 values, now .....$1.19

One lot of Boys' Slippers, $1.25 values, to close at .....98c

One lot of Rubbers, to close, per pair .....49c

50 pairs Ladies' High Shoes, odd sizes and narrow widths, to close, per pair .....$1.00

Garment Department

An unusual opportunity to buy heavy winter garments at practically the beginning of the winter.

Ladies' Suits

10 Suits valued up to $27.50, to close at .....$12.00

A few Suits valued from $15.00 to $22.50, now .....$9.98

Ladies' Coats

All of our Ladies' Fur Coats at very low prices to close.

Special reductions on all of our Cloth Coats.

One lot of Ladies' last season's Coats, good warm garments, original values up to $15.00, to close at .....$2.98

Ladies' Dresses

One lot of Ladies' All Wool Dresses in sizes 39 to 45, good line of colors, values $10.00 to $12.50, to close at .....$6.98

Ladies' Waists

One lot of Batiste Embroidered Voile and Crepe Waists, all sizes, to close at .....59c

One lot of Silk Messaline and Chiffon Waists, values up to $5.00, to close at .....$1.98

Ladies' Furs

Regardless of the big advance in the price of Furs, we are placing on sale several handsome Fur Sets and odd Muffs at prices that will surely interest you.

1 Mink Set, an $80.00 value, now at .....$45.00

1 Mink Set, a $65.00 value, now at .....$35.00

1 Jap Mink Set a $25.00 value, now at .....$15.00

1 Pointed Wolf Set, a $22.50 value, now at .....$15.00

1 Marmot Set, a $15.00 value, now at .....$10.00

1 Jap Mink Muff, a $15.00 value, now at .....$10.00

1 Sable Muff, a $12.50 value, now at .....$7.50

1 Squirrel Muffs, $12.50 values, now at .....$7.50

1 Squirrel Muff, a $6.98 value, now at .....$3.98

Ladies' Sweaters

One lot of Ladies' Sweaters to close at .....$2.98

After the Christmas rush, we have several lots of slightly soiled Linen Towels, Handkerchiefs, Aprons, Neckwear, etc., which are marked at attractive prices to close.

Also one lot of Ladies' odd and slightly soiled Neckwear at one-half price, and many other articles not mentioned.

BARRE DAILY TIMES

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1915.

The Weather

Partly cloudy to-night and Wednesday; somewhat colder to-night; moderate variable winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

G. A. Moody of Waterbury was among the business visitors in the city yesterday and to-day.

Harry Davis returned to his home in Bradford yesterday, after passing Christmas with relatives in South Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gupit, who recently took up their residence here, returned to the city yesterday, after passing the week end with friends in Northfield.

Hundreds joined our Christmas Club yesterday and to-day hundreds more will join; better come in and open your account now. Barre Savings Bank & Trust Co.

Edward O. McKay of Cliff street, who has been confined by typhoid fever for several weeks, was able to be down town yesterday for the first time since his illness.

Joseph K. Smith, until recently a conductor on the Barre & Chelsea railroad, who has been quite seriously ill of pneumonia at the home of his brother, David Smith, in Westerville, has so far recovered as to be able to be out of doors. Yesterday Mr. Smith called on a number of friends here in the city.

FLANNELETTE NIGHT ROBES

Here are three special offerings

NO. 1—COLORED ROBES; Blue and Pink; have collar; sized 15, 16, 17; sold for 59c and 69c; while they last at ..... 48c

NO. 2—WHITE ROBES; without collar; the weight of this garment is very satisfactory to most people; worth 87c; while they last at ..... 69c

NO. 3—WHITE ROBES; with and without collar; sized 15, 16 and 17; finished nicely; worth $1.00; while they last at ..... 89c

Henry W. Knight

Gordon Block, Next to N. D. Phelps Co.'s 'Phone 590

TALK OF THE TOWN

The financial secretary of the K. of C. will be at the club room Tuesday and Friday evenings from 7 to 9.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Private sale of household goods at 83 Washington street, Wednesday afternoon from 1 o'clock—adv.

Union Dry Goods Company

"THE NEW STORE"

OUR FIRST

Annual Clearance Sale

Begins Thursday, December 30

REMEMBER, THIS IS A REAL, GENUINE CLEARANCE SALE OF OUR OWN NEW STOCKS, not of cheap and inferior merchandise bought in especially for sale purposes.

EVERY DOLLARS' WORTH IN THIS BIG STORE IS NEW AND THIS SEASON'S GOODS, so don't compare this sale with others where old stocks carried from one season to another are offered at TEMPTING PRICES.

THIS NEW STORE HAS ENJOYED A MOST SATISFACTORY AND ENCOURAGING BUSINESS SINCE THE OPENING DAY, OCTOBER 14, 1915, and our aim is to sell everything in winter merchandise, carry nothing from this season into the next, so have CUT PRICES TO THE LIMIT in order to accomplish that object.

The coming season will find us completely ready, with fresh, new stocks for your selection.

Ready-to-Wear Department

In this great Clearance Sale, every Suit, Coat and Dress must be sold. The reductions are genuine, so don't buy a garment until you have first seen and compared the values we offer.

There are no exaggerations as to real values, no quotations that are not absolutely truthful. THE MOST DECISIVE PRICE REDUCTIONS ever made in the Suit and Coat history of this city or vicinity.

Wait for the big Clearance Sale at the new union store. Opening day is Thursday.

THE UNION DRY GOODS COMPANY

Telephone 599-M

191 North Main Street

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. A. M. Morrison and daughter, Elizabeth, are visiting friends in Roxbury for a few days.

Miss Grace Pirie left this morning for Norwood, N. Y., where she plans to visit relatives until after the holidays.

Andrew J. Wilkinson of Rutland, a former resident of Barre, is spending several days with friends in the city.

William Reaside of North Main street left the city this morning for Burlington to pass the remainder of the week on business.

Mrs. T. G. Carwell of South Main street has returned to the city, after passing a week with relatives in Hartford, Conn.

Miss Hazel Lyon and Miss Annie Messer, who are attending Mount Holyoke college in South Hadley, Mass., are passing the holiday season at their respective homes in Barre.

James T. Kearney, who with Mrs. Kearney has been passing a few days at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Brown of Jefferson street, returned last night to Brattleboro, where he is employed.

Edwin Felt, who received minor injuries in a collision on the M. & W. R. railroad last week, resumed his duties as conductor on the suburban trains yesterday, succeeding Julius Chamberlain, who was engaged as substitute conductor for several days. Lewis Martin, who was also injured in the collision, went back to work for the M. & W. R. Co. yesterday.

Regular meeting of the League of Women Voters, No. 16, I. O. E. M. to-night at 7 o'clock. Business, election of officers. Work, war-stor's degree.

TOO LATE TO BE CLASSIFIED

WANTED—Men to take charge of wholesale and retail business, general merchandise, etc. Also able to take after small business work. Some men wanted. Some others need apply. References required. Address R. L. care Barre Daily Times.

WANTED—Young men to work in office of a first-class manufacturing, generally mechanical, would be expected to help in estimating, bookkeeping, etc. after orders and correspondence. Good salary and opportunity. Address R. L. care Barre Daily Times.

A Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to Barre and vicinity for the very liberal patronage given us during the Christmas month, making it thus far the best in our almost 15 years' experience in the shoe business.

This consideration has been fully appreciated, we assure you, and we ask for a continuation of these favors during the future.

We shall spare no pains to continue improving our service, wherever possible, and keep this store the leading shoe store of this locality.

For your present needs, we would suggest RUBBERS OF OUR QUALITY for all members of the family. Rubbers prevent colds and the doctor's bills.

The People's Shoe Store

C. S. Andrews, Prop.

Currier Block

C. W. AVERILL & CO.

TELEPHONE 228

BARRE, VERMONT

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. Lee Parker of Bradford was brought to the City hospital last night and was operated upon this morning. Joseph A. Lapiere left the city this morning for Montreal, P. Q., where he will visit relatives until after the New Year.

New Year's dance at Holden hall, Middlesex, Friday evening, Dec. 31. Good music. Refreshments. Full bill, 75c. Everybody invited.—adv.

J. Wallace Grady, who has been absent on an extended western trip, has returned to the city for a few days' visit before going back to Mexico City, where he is engaged in the tailoring business.

Would you like to see an exhibition of the best poultry in Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine? Go to the Vermont poultry show at the Church street gymnasium Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.—adv.

TALK OF THE TOWN

The finest pen of birds in Maine! To be seen at the Vermont poultry show in the Church street gymnasium Dec. 28, 29 and 30.—adv.

Single birds valued at $50 and $100 at the Vermont poultry show on Church street. The public should not miss this opportunity to inspect the finest poultry in Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.—adv.

A small-sized flood was caused on Washington street yesterday forenoon by a lumber team which broke off the hydrant on the corner of Washington street and Highland avenue. The team, which is said to have belonged to a man from Kimball's corner, was turning out for the street car and the sled slewed around into the hydrant. Employees of the city soon appeared to shut off the water, so that no damage aside from the broken hydrant resulted.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Dance in Howland hall New Year's eve, Friday, Dec. 31. Carroll's orchestra.—adv. Remember the chicken-pie supper and social at Cobble Hill grange hall to-night.—adv.

To-night at the city court room Judge George P. Coffin of Freeport, Me., lectures at 7:30 o'clock. He is an authority on poultry breeding.—adv.

Bert Blair went this morning to Burlington, where he will remain for a few days before going to his former home near Rouses Point, N. Y., for a visit of several days.

Invitations have been extended by the Italian Gayety club for the third of a series of private dances to be given during the winter months. The Knights of Columbus hall has been reserved for the gathering, which is to take place to-morrow evening. The affair will take the form of a masquerade and dancing will be provided by a force with a small company of amateur thespians supporting Orreste Buffino and Edward Connolly. All dancers are to amuse at intermission, when a luncheon will be served. The dance is in charge of a committee consisting of Miss Mary Donnelly, Miss Josephine Birt, Miss Angie Venetti, George Molis, John Colombo and Charles Caldrone.

Last night at 8 o'clock at the Salvation Army hall, many children from all parts of the city congregated to receive presents. There were about 60 of them, all anxious to receive a bit of cheer and gladness. After a short entertainment, which lasted about three-quarters of an hour, the children were seated and the ladies, with an abundance of toys of all kinds, distributed to the children two and three presents apiece, and others to take home to their little sisters and brothers. Candy, oranges and apples were also given. The hall was prettily decorated with green and red trimming, paper and bolls and on either side stood two large trees laden with gifts for young and old.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Miss Caroline Swift of Middlesex arrived in the city yesterday for a few days' visit.

If the lady who purchased the two pair of children's gray leggings Friday will call at H. W. Knight's store, it will be of advantage to her.—adv.

Help boost Barre as an exhibition city by attending the state poultry show in the Church street gymnasium Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.—adv.

Miss Verna Laxson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Laxson of Mount street, was taken in the Perry & Noonan ambulance yesterday to the Boston hospital in Montpelier for treatment.

The annual meeting of the Vincitia club will be held in the club rooms on the evening of Thursday, Dec. 30, at 8 o'clock. All members of the club are urged to attend. After the business meeting a buffet lunch will be served.

Robert Bosworth in a five-act drama of Joseph Medill Patterson's great Broadway success, "The Little Rascal of the Rich." Robert Bailey plays the name part and Jane Novak the heroine. This feature gives Miss Novak an opportunity to wear some wonderful gowns, including a "Lancie" evening wrap, also a Paul Poiret afternoon frock. At the Roper to-day.—adv.

Men in the Italian colony of Barre are subscribing very generously to a petition asking executive clemency for four workmen, Ralston, Galletti, Spinelli and Mastrolanni, who, the petition states, received excessive jail sentences in Washington county court recently. It is the plan of the sponsors for the petition to secure as many names as possible here in Barre, where the men are known, and then to forward the petition to Governor G. W. Gates with the request that all four men be pardoned in order that they may support their families. In the meantime, the circumstances under which the men are alleged to have been sent to jail are reviewed in a general way.

Sterling Sweaters

We want again to call your attention to Sterling Sweaters for men, women and children.

Our twenty years of experience, in selling this make of Sweaters, have convinced us that there are none better.

Prices—$4.50, $5.00, $5.50, $6.00, $6.50 and $7.50.

ASK FOR THE STERLING.

The Frank McWhorter Co.